Earned Wage Access and other financial wellness benefits for employees

App Elevator Pitch

Earned Wage Access has become a necessity for today's employers. Here's what you need to know when speaking to partners about Rain's Earned Wage Access and financial wellness benefits program: Rain enables employers to allow employees to access their wages more frequently than the standard pay periods allow, without any extra cost or administrative work. Employees can access their pay as soon as they've earned their money, as opposed to waiting for their scheduled payday, resulting in higher productivity, reduced stress, decreased turnover, and more job applicants.

Value Drivers

- Improvement in partner's employee engagement
 - Decreases turnover
 - Decreases missed shifts
 - Increases job applications
 - Increases productivity
- No changes to employer's current payroll system

Competitive Advantage

Rain enables every employee who uses Schedulehead to access their earned wages on demand. Due to Rain's patent-pending model, there is no lift on the employer side.
